SOFTWARE ENGINEER

ABOUT ME

I am a full stack developer with 6 years of experience in IT. Exactly, I have +4 years of web and mobile development experience and +2 years of blockchain development experience.

I have a hobby in program development and work hard to learn new skills. I love coding so much that it can be said that coding is everything in my life.

As a developer who dreams of high-quality and wonderful coding, I hope that my program will be a wonderful thing that helps people.

I am familiar with building clean, efficient, well-documented, well-structured, high-quality code projects. Also, I am very well-versed in the agile approach in project development and really love to add my creativity to the overall project implementation.

My focus is on clean, elegant, and efficient codes and I am able to work on new and existing micro-sites, landing pages, templates, and provide guidance and troubleshooting support to clients.

Thank you for viewing my profile, hope we can work on a project together soon.
